Your Monthly Message

By Chelsea Yepello

Aries March 21 - April 19

You will be initiated into a secret society only to have your membership revoked days later, when your self-motivation leads you to sacrifice a goat during your first gathering. Maybe the Elks Club doesn't have the same flare for the dramatic as you do.

Taurus April 20 - May 20

You will lose your life savings when your attempt to market invisible dogs to invisible dog fence owners isn't received with much enthusiasm by the masses.

Gemini May 20 - June 20

Idle chitchat is the white noise of society. Unfortunately, the only way for you to explain this to your fellow humans is by loosening them up with idle chitchat.

Cancer June 21 - July 22

You will begin your fortune when you take candid pictures of your friends and sell them as post-cards, adding cheeky captions and puns to the images. This will not be a long-term investment, as your friends will no longer spend time with you.

Leo July 23 - August 23

You will have trouble finding employment if you continue to wink at your potential employer during your interview and remark that photocopying your butt is your worst quality... but also your best quality... hey o.

Virgo August 23 - September 22

Der Duft wurde von dem Kissen verblasst. Die Insider-Witze sind nur lustig, dich jetzt. Die Umarmungen sind nicht mehr intimer als einem freundlichen Händedruck. Sie tun all die Dinge, die Spaß gehofft, es wird die gleiche Freude oder Abenteuer früher, du bist nur du gehen durch die Bewegungen und du weißt es. That's German, folks.

Libra September 23 - October 23

Canadian rebels will kidnap you and sell you to the national hockey association to be their towel boy. Friendly neighbors to the north, or masters of deception?

Scorpio October 24 - November 21

Don't fight the change. Time moves on no matter how many times you set back the big hand on your kitchen clock.

Sagittarius November 22 - December 21

You will soon drop your health insurance when they refuse to cover you during your century-long cryogenic freeze.

Capricorn December 22 - January 19

Blessed are the moments of your life that you forget to enjoy. Don't worry, a little more booze and you'll forget that you forgot.

Aquarius January 20 - February 18

The recent summer Olympics will entice you to petition to start your own Olympic sport. Unfortunately, cow tipping will not be considered by the committee.

Pisces February 19 - March 20

The moment has passed you for the last time; you finally decide to move on with your life. As you do this, the moment grabs you by the elbow hoping you will hesitate; the moment just realized that it doesn't want to be passed into the past.

Valley Verses

A poem for Joe and Cyprus:

It always never fails to amaze me
the abuse the human body will struggle through to return from virtually unharmed.

Of course, it catches up eventually. We're all eaten by the earth. The monstrous loam catching us like the mouth of a whale.

Slow

and open.

The earth rising envelopes us or we wear down into it. Rutted like a trodden path or a pencil tip.
Going from sharp, pointed and dangerous
- a potential weapon -
to blunt, dull and smudged,
barely legible.
